

Audiovisual Technologies

Justine, Nate, Bob, & Jarloth

Chapter 10 Terms

Across

- 3 thin sheets of clear acetate on which visuals are created
- 5 unrestricted observations and reflections of someone's experiences (2 Words)
- 6 computer output devices project digital images onto a projection screen (2 Words)
- 10 technology that compresses and plays digital video as it is being received (2 Words)
- 11 uses a powerful lamp to shine through transparencies as a series of mirrors and lenses magnify the visual and focus the image onto a projection screen (2 Words)
- 12 video within a school that is typically distributed to all classrooms (3 Words)
- 13 cameras that are connected to a computer which in turn is connected to the Internet (2 Words)
- 14 digital version of analog audio (2 Words)
- 15 using the Internet to offer online radio stations consisting of a wide variety of programming (2 Words)

Down

- 1 motion picture experts group, audio layer 3
- 2 uses broadcast airwaves to distribute a wide array of instructional programs throughout a school district that can also be viewed by anyone who tunes in to that channel (2 Words)
- 4 flexible surface that provides an easy-to-change venue for a variety of print and graphic elements (2 Words)
- 7 video transmission format that ignores targets educational audiences (2 Words)
- 8 a video camera mounted on a stand that captures and projects an image of whatever is placed on the stand's table (2 Words)
- 9 interviews captured on audiotape related to a significant event (2 Words)